

Couple Opens Their Hearts and Home to Children in Need —More About Heart Gallery

After adopting two children from Orlando's foster care system, Jeff and Kathleen Hawkins of Jeff Hawkins Photography knew they wanted to help Family Services of Metro Orlando (FSMO) find loving homes for children currently in the adoption process. Believing that family is the most important aspect of life, Jeff and Kathleen were eager to photograph children for the new Heart Gallery of Metro Orlando exhibit. The traveling photography exhibit will rotate in the community and feature kids that need loving homes.

As fellow photographers and WPPI members, they are asking you to help these children. Visit the FSMO website to see what you can do to help. If you are interested in learning more about opportunities to adopt or foster children, please call (877) 6-MY-KIDS. There are several free informational seminars held around the community each month.

In addition to the physical exhibit, another component of the Heart Gallery of Metro Orlando is an interactive website, www.heartgallerymetroorlando.org, which includes a digital photo gallery of the children along with detailed information on adoption. There is also a Heart Gallery Fundraising Gala on November 17 in Orlando.

For more about Heart Gallery across the U.S. see last month's Member News.